To

P.H. KRISHNA RAO, Esq., M.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Development Department, BANGALORE.

SIR,

1) With reference to Government Order No.G.4238-8/P.& S.92-37-2, dated 8-11-38, sanctioning the recruitment of one General and two Special candidates as Junior probationers during the current year, I have the honour to state that an advertisement inviting applications for the three appointments was published through the Secretary, Central Recruitment Board, in the Mysore Gazette, dated 24-11-1938. Seventy applications for one appointment of the "A" Class or General vacancy and 26 applications for two appointments of the "B" Class or Special vacancies were received. A statement giving full particulars of the several candidates in each Class is submitted for kind perusal. Although the appointments to which the probationers may be appointed on completion of their probation are within the powers of appointment of the Superintendent, I have deemed it advisable to submit the matter to the Government for orders as this is the first time this method of recruitment has been tried in the Government Press and I am anxious to acquaint Government with all the considerations that have weighed with me in the selection of candidates for the several posts. I request that my action may be kindly approved and that early orders may be kindly passed in the matter.

2) Out of 70 candidates who have applied for the General vacancy one is a graduate, one has undergone the B.A., course, 4 have passed a part of the Intermediate Examination, 13 have completed the Intermediate course and one the Junior Intermediate course and and 50 have passed the S.S.L.C. Arranged according to communities there are one Visvakarma candidate, and two Jains and the remaining 67 are Brahmins.

3) Out of 26 candidates who have applied for the special vacancies, one has passed a part of the Intermediate Examination, and 6 have completed the Intermediate course and the remaining 19 have passed the S.S.L.C. The marginally noted classification shows the number of candidates of the several communities who have applied for the appointments.

1. Vaisyas	..	1
2. Kshatriyas	..	3
3. Balijiga	..	2
4. Kurubar	..	2
5. Jain	..	3
6. Tigala	..	1
7. Adikarnataka	..	3
8. Lingayat	..	3
9. Weaver	..	3
10. Vokkaligar	..	2
11. Neygi	..	1
12. Sathani	..	1
13. Maratta Non-Brahmin.		1
Total.		26

It is a gratifying feature that although the S.S.L.C., was prescribed as the minimum qualification a number of candidates with higher qualifications have applied for the appointments. Out of 96 candidates who have applied for the appointments, (70 for the General vacancy and 26 for the Special vacancies), one is a graduate, one has completed the B.A. course, 5 have passed a part of the Intermediate Examination, 19 have completed the Intermediate course, and one has completed the Junior Intermediate course, so that as many as 27 or more than a fourth of the candidates possess qualifications higher than those fixed for the appointments. This shows that educated young men are turning to the press as a venue of employment, and the old idea that press work was only a mechanical job where education was at a discount is slowly giving way.

4) I have also considered the claims of the marginally noted candidates who have worked in the Press and Stationery offices.

They are men with very ordinary qualifications and they have done nothing during the period they have been here to improve their qualifications. Their work is also not of a high quality and there is nothing in them to entitle them to special consideration in connection with the appointments of Probationers.

"A" LIST.

2. K. Krishna Rao

"B" LIST.

1. L. Aswathanarayana
2. M. Venkataswamy Gowda
3. K. Rangappa
4. B. Narayana Reddy

5) From the General list I selected the graduate, Mr. A. N. Narayana Rao (Age 23 years and 10 months) and the marginally noted three candidates who had passed the S.S.L.C. and possessed a connection with the printing art; and from the special list I selected Mr. C. R. Seetharama Setty (Age 22 years and 8 months), who had passed part II of the Intermediate Examination and had taken Printing and Book-Binding as the Additional subject at the S.S.L.C., two candidates, Messrs. B.S. Siddaraj Urs (Age 22 years) and K. Narasimhiah, (20 years) who were next in order of merit in the Central Recruitment Board list and Mr. K.P. Nabhiraj (age 22 years and 5 months), who had completed the Intermediate course, had trained in Printing and Book-binding as an additional subject at the S.S.L.C. and had worked for 5 or 6 years in a Printing press and called them up for an interview on the 27th instant. All the candidates except Messrs. Siddaraj Urs and Nabhiraj were present. As Mr. Nabhiraj had already interviewed me of his own accord sometime back, his absence at the interview may be overlooked in view of his qualifications.

1. Mr. K. Lakshminarayana Rao (Age 23 years and 11 months) S.S.L.C. served in a Printing Press for over five years and knows Composing and Proof-Reading.
2. Mr. R. Krishna Iyengar (Age 25 years and 10 months) S.S.L.C. with Printing as additional subject.
3. Mr. T. Sundararaja Rao (Age 24 years and 5 months) completed the Intermediate Course, undergone training in Composing and Proof-reading at the Bangalore Press.

I was able to get an idea of their mental equipment, general intelligence and physical fitness.

6) From a consideration of all the circumstances I find that Mr. A.N. Narayana Rao is the best candidate for the general vacancy. He is a B.Sc., with Mathematics, Economics and Statistics as his optionals. He has also passed the Junior Typewriting Examination. It is not necessary to consider the cases of the other three general candidates in view of his superior qualifications. Mr. R. Krishna Iyengar , who has passed the S.S.L.C. with Printing is too old as he is nearly 26 years and the acquaintance of the other two candidates with Printing is very slight. For the two special vacancies, Mr. C.R. Seetharama Setty, who possesses the highest qualification, a pass in Part II of the Intermediate Examination, and Mr. K.P. Nabhiraj, who has completed the Intermediate course and both of whom have had a grounding in Printing, are quite suitable. All three candidates are young and are physically fit for a course of training in the Government Press . I beg to recommend that Mr. A. N. Narayana Rao, B.Sc., may be appointed as Junior Probationer in the General vacancy and Messrs . C.R. Seetharama Setty and K.P. Nabhiraj may be appointed as Junior Probationers in the two Special vacancies on the terms laid ~~done~~ down in Government Order No.G.4236-8/P. & S.92-37-2, dated 8-11-1938.

7) The file of applications is submitted herewith for kind perusal and return when it is done with.
